

C 14/0

1912 Dates J-BK

died 1415

Manuel CHRYSOLORAS

was the first great teacher of Greek in the Western World, lectured at the University of Florence

1410

The Christian Era (A.D.-B.C.)
was adopted by Portugal

1410

Russia

Battle of TANNENBERG.

Poles and Lithuanians defeat

TEUTONIC Knights

July 15, 1410

Battle of Tannenberg

One of the largest cavalry battles of the age, the combined forces of the Poles and Lithuanians

defeated the ORDER OF THE TEUTONIC KNIGHTS

The Poles/Lithuanians brought an army of 100,000 and the clever military tactician and future leader of the Hussites JAN ŽIŽKA.

The Knights' forces estimated at 83,000 were supplemented primarily by German mercenaries.

Although both sides brought crossbowmen and cannon. Despite initial success, the King's men ultimately defeated. The nobles lost its impetus as a crusading force

14/10

Civil war of Burgundians and Armagnacs in France.

C 1410

In the early 15th century the Ming dynasty dispatched spectacular Armadas into the Indian Ocean. The imperial navy came to number ~~3,100~~ 3,100 warships, 400 armed transports, and 250 nine-masted treasure ships, about 300 ft long and 150 ft in beam.

1410

We do not know who invented spring driven clocks, but the architect BRUNELLESCHI is said to have been making them in 1410, and they were certainly known by the mid-15th century

1410

France

Civil war between Orleans and Burgundy.

10 MAR 1410 AD

WIRE WAS INVENTED

1410

The Italian architect BRUNELLESCHI seems to have made a spring-driven clock.

Within a century a German locksmith was making small clocks driven by springs.

1410

1912 Dates J-BK

BATTLE of GRUNWALD (or TANNENBERG)

This was a Polish victory over Teutonic knights

1410-1437

1912 Dates J-BK

Germany

SIGISMUND

July 15, 1410

1912 Dates J-BK

GRUNWALD vs TANNENBERG

After a series of wars for possession of Poland, the Poles and LITHUANIANS under VLADISLAV II (JAGELLON) met and defeated the Teutonic KNIGHTS, their armies numbering 100,000 each.

40,000 knights were lost including officers and grand master. The battle broke the power of the KNIGHTS, reunited
POLAND and LITHUANIA and marked

The turning point in Ireland's history.

1410

BRUNELLESCHI: spring-driven clocks?

1410

Architect Brunelleschi is said to have been making spring-driven clocks, though we do not know who invented them.

1411

Council of Pisa

Second (convened without authority) was definitely schismatical and was denounced by the FIFTH LATERAN COUNCIL, which met in 1412

1411

Sigismund elected joint king of the Romans.

Feb 1, 1411

Treaty of Thorn (Torun)

Temporarily settled the conflict between Poland and the Teutonic Knights

1466- Teutonic Knights evacuated west Prussia giving Poland access to the Baltic

1411

Battle of Shent

An early Giant Cannon named "The Dulle Drute" fired balls weighing 700 pounds at the Battle of Shent in 1411

1411-1412

Jean Hest

Spain

Vicente Ferrer and oppressive legislation

1411

Germany
SIGISMUND, King of Hungary is Emperor.

1412

Duncan:Cal

Antipape' John XXIII

Jan - 6, 1412

According to tradition, Joan of Arc was born in DOMREMY